The New Normal

Why Our Economy May Never Go Back to the Way It Was & How You Can Protect Your Family and Your Retirement!

40 years of steadily growing U.S. indebtedness - personal, corporate and governmental - has finally hit a brick wall. What are the implications for our economy and for each of us?

- Will unprecedented government bailouts and involvement in our economy result in substantial inflation or even a 1970s-style stagflation?
- Will U.S. economic growth be weak for a decade or longer? If so, how might this affect your asset allocation?
- Why and how you need to diversify your investment portfolio to minimize the damage during a protracted bear market.

About the speaker:
Hendrix Niemann runs the Wealth Management Team at CUNA Mutual Group. Mr. Niemann speaks regularly to credit union members, staff and management throughout the U.S. about current economic trends.
